TOPIC AND GOALS

“Back to the village” aims to empower youth workers and volunteers by providing context, tools, methods, and networks, to overcome challenges of isolation and limited opportunities, faced by youth in rural areas.

Our aims are:

- Developing professional competencies for working with youth in rural environments.
- Promoting active participation of young people in their communities.
- Sharing innovative practices and methods in youth work adapted to rural contexts.
- To encourage creativity and local initiatives among rural youth.
- Addressing challenges specific to rural youth, such as isolation and lack of leisure opportunities.

TIMETABLE

- ◆ Activities will be from 10:00 to 13:30, and from 15:30 to 17:30
- ◆ Breakfast is at 9:00, lunch at 13:30, and dinner at 20:30
- ◆ There won't be coffee breaks: you'll be able to have snacks and coffee anytime

OTHER ACTIVITIES

- ◆ One full day will be in Logroño: activities, free time, traditional lunch and dinner
- ◆ We'll visit natural volcanic spring waters
- ◆ We'll hike natural paths in the mountains
- ◆ And we'll have three national evenings!

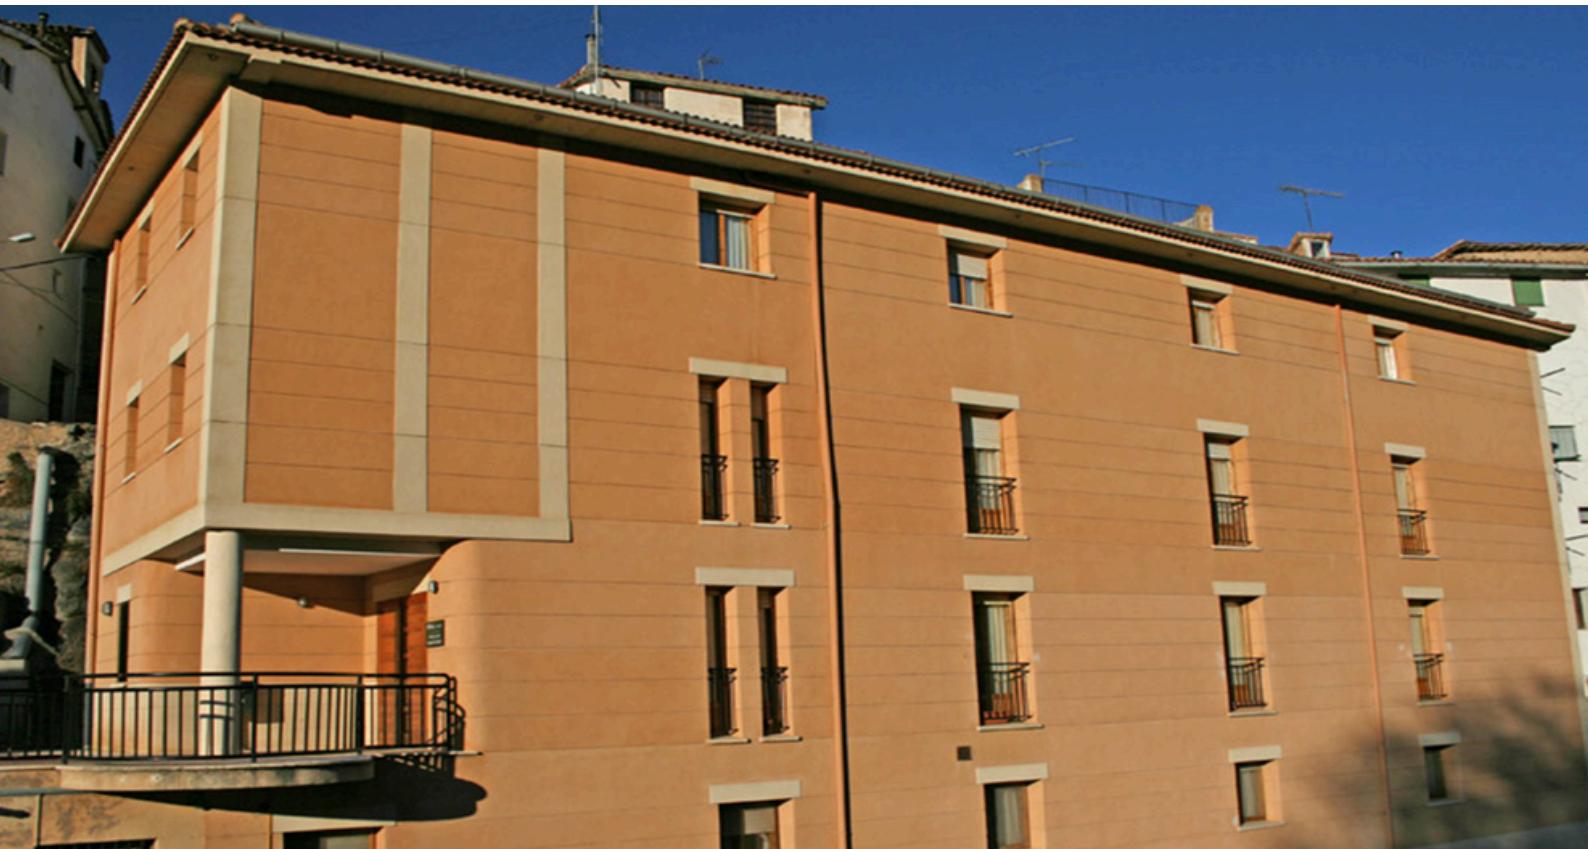

VENUE

All the group will be accommodated at the youth hostel "Hayedo de Santiago", in Munilla (La Rioja). The whole building will be ours.

Facilities:

- Rooms distributed in two floors, will be shared between 3 people.
- Shared bathrooms for females and for males, one in each floor.
- Separated working and living room on the ground floor, with games and sofas.
- Limited access to the kitchen: there will be someone cooking for us the whole week.

There is a sport area close to the hostel, and two bars in Munilla, but no shops. However, we will drive in case of need to the closest town where there are more services.

MUNILLA...

It's a perfect spot to experience the rural exodus in Spain, full of old stone houses, narrow streets, and the characteristic atmosphere of a traditional mountain village in La Rioja.

...AND LOGROÑO

The capital city of La Rioja, with one of the most famous gastronomies in Spain, based on its "pinchos". The whole region is famous for its wine, considered to be the highest quality in Spain. Here, we will visit some of the most touristic sites, and will taste many of its products.

ECONOMIC CONDITIONS

No fee!

Accommodation and meals will be fully covered during the activity days.

TRAVEL GUIDE TO LOGROÑO

For those participants flying, we recommend to land in Bilbao, Madrid or Barcelona.

FROM BILBAO TO LOGROÑO

Take bus A3247 from Bilbao Airport to Intermodal Bus Station. It takes 30 min.

From there, there are several daily buses to Logroño. The bus company operating the line is Cuadrabus.

FROM MADRID TO LOGROÑO

There are several daily buses from Madrid-Barajas Airport (T4) to Logroño.

The bus companies operating the line are ALSA and JIMENEZ.

FROM BARCELONA TO LOGROÑO

From Barcelona Airport (T2), take train line R2-Nord to Sants Station. Once there, you can take a train from Sants Station, or a bus from Sants and Nord Stations:

BY TRAIN

The main train company is RENFE. There are some direct trains, but for most options you will have to change in Zaragoza.

If needed, you'll find more trains between Barcelona and Zaragoza in OUIGO and IRYO, and then another train from Zaragoza to Logroño in RENFE.

BY BUS

There are several daily buses from Barcelona (Sants and Nord) to Logroño. The bus company operating the line is ALSA.

GREEN TRAVEL OPTIONS

For french and central european participants, the best way is to arrive to San Sebastián by bus: BLABLACAR or FLIXBUS. Then, there are several daily buses to Logroño. The company operating the line is LA ESTELLESA.

For portuguese participants, there are weekly direct buses from the area of Braga/Porto to Logroño. The company operating the line is LA ANDORRANA.
